NEPOTISM OF PRESIDENT GRANT.

The New York Sun presents the following list of the members of the Grant family and their relations now in official position under the Federal Government and supported by an annual tax upon the people, which a Washington letter to the same paper figures up at $374,600:

I. Ulysses Simpson Grant, President of the United States.

II. Jesse Root Grant, President's father, Postmaster at Covington, Ky.

III. Frederick Dent Grant, President's son, Cadet at West Point.

IV. Orville L. Grant, President's brother, partner with the Collector of the Port at Chicago.

V. Frederick T. Dent, President's father-in-law, Claimant of Lands at Carondolet, Mo.—enclued by Wilson, Commissioner of Land Office.

VI. Rev. M. J. Cramer, President's brother-in-law, Minister to Denmark.

VII. Abel Rathbone Corbin, President's brother-in-law, negotiator of gold and real estate speculations with James Fisk, Jr., and Jay Gould.

VIII. Brevet Brigadier General F. T. Dent, President's brother-in-law, chief usher at the Executive Mansion.

IX. Judge Louis Dent, President's brother-in-law. Counsel for Claimants before the President. Fees estimated at $40,000 a year.

X. George W. Dent, President's brother-in-law, Appraiser of Customs, San Francisco.

XI. John Dent, President's brother-in-law, only Indian Trader for New Mexico, under Indian Bureau; place worth $100,000 a year.

XII. Alexander Sharpe, President's brother-in-law, Marshal of the District of Columbia.

XIII. James F. Casey, President's brother-in-law, Collector of the Port of New Orleans; place worth $30,000 a year.

XIV. James Longstreet, President's brother-in-law's cousin, Surveyor of the Port of New Orleans.

XV. Silas Hudson, President's own cousin, Minister to Guatemala.

XVI. George K. Leet, President's brother-in-law's cousin, Public Stores, New York; place worth $100,000 a year.

XVII. Orlando H. Ross, President's own cousin, clerk in the Third Auditor's office, Washington.

XVIII. Dr. Addison Dent, President's brother-in-law's third cousin, clerk in the Register's office, Treasury Department, Washington.

XIX. J. F. Simpson, President's own cousin, second lieutenant, twenty-fifth infantry.

XX. John Simpson, President's own cousin, second lieutenant, fourth artillery.

XXI. George B. Johnson, President's mother's second cousin, Assessor of Internal Revenue, Third District, Ohio.

XXII. B. L. Wyman, President's cousin's husband, Postmaster of Newport, Ky.

XXIII. Miss E. A. Magruder, President's brother-in-law's second cousin, clerk in Gen. Spinner's office, Treasury Department.

The Rochester Union adds: "One of the worst features of Grant's monstrous nepotism is not presented in the above list. It is the appointment by Grant of his brother-in-law, F. T. Dent, to the position of Lieutenant Colonel in the 2d artillery.—Dent was an officer of infantry, but has been a sort of lackey at the White House since Grant's election, drawing double pay from the treasury. By the recent consolidation of the army his regiment was disbanded and he was consequently left without a place, and under the law he would be mustered out as a supernumerary officer. Now Grant arbitrarily makes him a Lieutenant Colonel of artillery, thus foisting him into a branch of the service in which he never served, over the heads of meritorious officers who have spent their lives in it, and to the entire displacement of some one officer of artillery who by right should be maintained in his position."

FANCIES OF A STARVING MAN.—A Mr. Evarts, who got lost amid the mountains of California, wandering about for many days, and was finally discovered when nearly perishing from want of food, had strange fancies come over him toward the last of his wanderings, which are thus described: He does not admit of the idea that he was deprived of sound mind, but at the same time fancied that he had plenty of company; thought his right leg was one man, his left another, his arms two others, and his stomach a fifth; thought they were good fellows, and was sorry he could not give them all they wanted to eat. He was surprised that when thistles were to be dug, fires made, wood brought, and meals cooked, they would not help him. Everything he ate tasted good except grasshoppers. His stomach had not been educated up to that point. He frequently ate raw fish, and esteemed them delicious; caught one snowbird, and had a rare meal; chased a toad for two days, but without capturing it. In his dreams he used to cook some of the most delicious meals he ever ate in his life.

LEE.—Rev. Dr. T. V. Moore, of Nashville, in a memorial sermon, delivered in Nashville on the 23d ult., relates an incident of Gen. Lee's unflinching loyalty to duty which fell under his own notice. After the cartel for exchange of prisoners was suspended, one of Gen. Lee's sons was taken prisoner. A Federal officer of the same rank in the Libby prison, sent for Dr. Moore, and wished him to write to Gen. Lee, begging him to obtain the consent of the Confederate authorities to his release, provided he could, as he felt sure would be the case, induce the United States authorities to send Gen. Lee's son in exchange. In a few days General Lee replied, declining respectfully, but firmly, to ask any favor for his own son that could not be asked for the humblest soldier in the army. The officer, while disappointed, was yet so much struck with the unselfish nobleness of the reply, that he begged the letter as a memento of Gen. Lee, adding with deep emphasis, "Sir, I regard him as the greatest man now living."

THE COMING WOMAN.—Horace Greeley asks thus: "Will the coming woman pull teeth?" To which the bald-headed benedict of the Indianapolis Mirror—doubtless speaking from sad experience—responds: "Our limited prophetic knowledge prevents us from answering Horace; but, if the present is a truthful criterion for the future, we can safely assert that the coming woman will pull hair."

Special Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.

HOW THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE WAS RECEIVED—WHY HE CHANGED HIS MIND CONCERNING GENERAL AMNESTY—A LARGE PROPORTION IN CONGRESS FAVORABLE THERETO.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5, 1870.

The President's message falls rather flat even among his Republican friends. There is a little enthusiasm over it as has ever exhibited, even as little as greeted his first Cabinet announcement. Many of his friends are disappointed that he did not recommend a general amnesty law, which they understood to have been his intention when the first draft of the message was prepared. That he has not done so is taken as evidence sufficient to show the fact that Grant depends upon the Drake-Sumner-Butler wing of the party for his renomination. These are types of the ultra Radicals who would never favor general amnesty, and it will be seen that during the present session, as in every previous one after the war, their voices will be heard in favor of proscription and in opposition to every liberal sentiment that nobler men are inclined to advance.

The St. Domingo part of the message excites anything but favorable comment among the President's friends, and the strong advocacy of that scheme is regarded as a "lobby" job of stupendous proportions.

The sneers at England, and every item of the message savoring of a willingness to get into a row, falls very flat, and it is certain that Congress will not be influenced, as indeed it will not by any portion of the document.

Several of the Republican members in both Houses express themselves very favorable on the subject of a general amnesty law. This is particularly the case with men professing to represent the Southern and Middle States. They see the "handwriting on the wall" plainly enough. It is certain that the silent consent to the furtherance of a proscriptive policy given by the President will not have a similar sympathy in Congress to the same extent as it did last year. Grant pledges himself to it, but will be found in the minority.

ADMIRAL PORTER'S LETTER ABOUT GRANT.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Admiral Porter has written a letter to President Grant in explanation of his letter to Secretary Welles. Porter's first impulse, he says, was not to deny the authenticity of the letter. Neither the Admiral nor his Secretary could recall to their recollection any circumstance of the kind. The Admiral could not conceive that he had uttered sentiments, so at variance with the sentiments he had always expressed towards President Grant. The Admiral says that the letter was private, and says that the vindictive spirit shown must have been in the heart of the writer that prompted its publication at this late day. The Admiral says that he is glad that he remembers nothing about the letter, because it is so poor a return for the President's uniform kindness. Recalling the engagement at Fort Fisher, the Admiral adds: "I presume that it was while under this excitement that I wrote the letter which you say has made you lose your faith in human nature. I have no recollection of it any more than that I would have of other passing circumstances of six years ago." The Amiral then says: "I do not write for the purpose of exonerating myself. I would rather be the writer of the letter than the publisher. The peace of political parties and of society would be placed in great jeopardy if all the private letters written within the last six years were published;" and he concludes with an expression of regret for the loss of Grant's friendship.

ATTEND TO THE "CHORES."—There is no use in raising good crops, buying fine stock, etc., if it is not taken care of. A farmer might work year after year, and lose everything he makes, just through the "chores" and nothing else.

If you want your stock to thrive, your grain fed out economically, you must do it yourself or see it done. If from any cause you are unable to do your "chores," or feel slightly above it, your purse strings are loose, and your cash is sliding out unless you oversee. Any man farming 160 acres can employ his time profitably in doing nothing else more than overlooking the place and doing the 'chores.' He can afford to keep one man by the year, and two six or seven months, if he manages well, and make it pay him twice as well as to work in the field himself and let the hands or boys do the "chores." I advise every farmer to look at this thing closely, and see whether greenbacks have not been slipping out of his grasp through this overlooked and unthought of avenue—the "chores."

The papers are whimsically alluding to the fact that Cincinnati disposed of sixty divorce cases in one day. To the man who thinks, and thinking, regards the welfare of his race, this statement is one of sorrow, and one on which he is little disposed to be whimsical. The levity with which the marriage tie is regarded, the ease with which it is broken, and the alacrity with which the facilities for divorce are seized is one of the most painful features of modern civilization. Whatever touches the integrity of the family circle, whatever tends to sap and destroy the institutions of domestic life, cannot help but be disastrous to the State and destructive to the general weal.

The modern American Triumvirate, says the Philadelphia Record, are the professional politicians and rings, the great consolidated railroad corporations and the money power, represented by more than 1,300 corporations, who have the extensive monopoly of furnishing the whole currency of the country—the very life-blood that flows through all the arteries of commerce, agriculture, manufactures and business—and who, with some honorable exceptions, cringe and fawn and pay the other two parties of the triumvirate that they may retain their unjust monopoly and privileges undisturbed.

Waltzing is, no doubt, to those participating, a delicious excitement; but to the looker-on, who sees the arm of a rival embracing the girl he adores, the sensation is not very comfortable. Henry Englefield has thus expressed the latter's feelings:

"What! the girl I adore by another embraced!
What! the balm of her breath shall another man taste!
What! pressed in the whirl by another's bold knee!
What! panting reclined on another than me!
Sir! she's yours. You have brushed, from the grape its soft blue;
From the rosebud you've shaken the tremulous dew;
That you've touched you may take. Pretty waltzer, adieu!"

The Earl of Shaftsbury says that "if his Holiness, the Pope, had a wife, she would not allow him for an hour to remain in the belief that he was infallible."

MISCELLANEOUS.

BRONCHIAL SYRUP.

THIS BRONCHIAL SYRUP is a safe and certain remedy for SCROFULA in many of its varying forms. Its effects are speedy and permanent. It cures rapidly Coughs, Colds, Croup, Bronchitis, Asthma, Consumption in its early stages, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, General Debility, &c.

This preparation is perfectly harmless never producing any unpleasant symptoms or the slightest injury to the tone of the most delicate stomach. Its results are Tonic and invigorating, giving a good and healthy appetite. It is compounded of fresh and unadulterated materials which, from their combination, exercise an alterative influence over the entire system. This Medicine is alike efficacious upon the air passages, curing Coughs, Colds, Croup, Asthma and Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and also upon the Alimentary Canal, stimulating and strengthening its action, and driving out that Hydra-headed monster, Dyspepsia.

It has been tested by large numbers of persons, and has invariably given relief and satisfaction. It is also prescribed by many prominent physicians in this State.

Among those who have tested it and testified to its efficacy, we may mention Rev. J. H. Daily, M. Q. Waddell, Esq., Rev. J. B. Bobbitt, Gov. Holden, Rev. W. H. Wills, Rev. T. M. Jones, A. B. Hawkins, M. D., Rev. C. B. Riddick, Bishop D. S. Doggett, Bishop G. F. Pearce, Ex-Gov. A. Rencher, Rev. R. B. Sutton, Hon A. W. Venable, Bishop Davis of S. C., Rev. N. F. Reid, and hundreds of others whose certificates Dr. Young has in his possession.

The BRONCHIAL SYRUP can be obtained of Messrs. PESCUD, LEE & CO., and Messrs. WILLIAMS & HAYWOOD, Raleigh, and of Druggists generally.

DEATH OF THE HON. BEDFORD BROWN.

The Hon. Bedford Brown died on Tuesday evening last, at his residence in Caswell county.

He had been to Yanceyville the evening before, and spent a couple of hours in a small circle of his friends. He was looking unusually well, and received their congratulations upon his apparently excellent health. In the course of conversation a question was asked relative to the impeachment of Judge Peck during his Senatorial term. He entered into the subject with interest and animation. From this he passed to the men and events of that day. His conversation was in the highest degree instructive and entertaining, and was marked by a temper genial and even gay. He returned home at an hour a little later than usual, but perfectly well. On the following morning, when his servant entered his room, Col. Brown was in the act of rising, but sank back on his bed with a groan. His son, who was sleeping below stairs, was instantly summoned, with the servants about the house. When they reached his bedside he was speechless. All that the devoted love of his son, and the affectionate solicitude of the servants, could suggest for his relief was done, but proved unavailing. He expired about six o'clock, most probably of apoplexy.

To few men could the phrase be more strictly applied that he died "full of years and full of honors." The verdict of the country upon him would not be far to seek, viz: that he was a man pure, able, high-spirited and of inflexible principle. The honor of high position he enjoyed longer than did most of the statesmen of his day, his Senatorial term being of unusual duration. But he was especially distinguished as the recipient of those privileges and honors, which consist in the homage that men everywhere so freely and gladly yield to stainless character and unsullied integrity.

His age was about 76. He was born in Caswell in 1795. He was elected to the House of Commons in 1815, where he served for many years. In 1829 he was elected to the Senate of the United States, and was re-elected at the expiration of his term, and no man has ever made a more acceptable official record than his. He will live long in the memory of those he so long and so faithfully served, and his example will shine out as a beacon light to the young men of our State, who aspire to make a name in their country's history.

LEASING THE UNIVERSITY.

The Radical Board of Trustees, together with Governor Holden and his Cabinet, including Pilgrim Ashley, having reduced the University so low that all hopes of its recovery under present auspices are perfectly futile and vain, are now concocting a plan to keep it in its deplorable condition and put it, for a score of years, beyond the power of the State to do anything for it.

Having secretly sold the Swamp lands the proceeds from the sale of which were appropriated to educational purposes, to Carrow and Bibles, and squandered two or 300,000 dollars without organizing even a shadow of common school system in the State, they now propose to lease out the University to some scalawag or carpet bagger, (for no man of literary reputation would touch it under their plan) for a term of twenty years, just the time for which Major Smith proposed to lease out the North Carolina Railroad.

If the Governor and the Pilgrim are to be allowed to go on to the consummation of their plan, we think they ought, at least, to be required to advertise the time and place of the leasing, a very important matter, neglected in the attempted lease of the N. C. Railroad and sale of the Swamp lands, so that the State may reap the largest advantage by inviting competition.

The Governor seems bent on working the utter ruin and destruction of everything belonging to the State that comes under his control. Should he lease out the present Faculty with the University property, he will not get enough for the lease to educate one young freedman to spell "Baker." Who would pay anything for Solomon Pool for President, or venture money on Brewer, Martlin and Patrick? But, perhaps, Martlin may be considered as out of the count, as, after cutting down the stately shade oaks, he has "vamoosed" the classic hill, and is now reporting in short hand for the Standard.

Shades of Caldwell and of Swain! into what hands the University has fallen.

* * *

WE THANK those of our cotemporaries who have done us the kindness to notice, in complimentary and encouraging terms, the improvements made in the SENTINEL. We are determined to make the SENTINEL worthy the support of the people of our State, and particularly of the great Conservative-Democratic party to whose interests it is devoted. The very rapid increase of our circulation gives us satisfactory proof that our efforts are appreciated.

Let the good work go on.

GRANT AND ADMIRAL PORTER.

Yesterday we gave what purports to be a letter written by Admiral Porter, of the U. S. Navy, in 1865, about President (then General) Grant. To-day we give what the Admiral has to say in explanation of the aforesaid letter.

Since the death of Admiral Faragut, which occurred a few weeks ago, Porter has been cultivating the most intimate relationship with the President, and, doubtless considered his prospects for stepping into the position made vacant by Faragut's death very satisfactory, until the publication of that unfortunate letter.

Upon reading it, the President declared that it "made him lose faith in human nature," whereupon the Admiral writes another letter. At first, the Admiral declared the letter to be "a base forgery," but the evidence fixing him as its author was so complete and undeniable, he makes up his mind to "presume that it was written while under the excitement" of the battle of Fort Fisher. He goes on to say that he does not write now "for the purpose of exonerating himself," as he would "rather be the writer of the letter than its publisher," but to "express his deep pain at the loss of Grant's friendship."

This "loss" does come at a most inopportune time; but the Admiral must console himself with the fact—to use his own words—that "Grant wants magnanimity, like most army officers, and is so avaricious * * * that he will never, if he can help it, do justice" to those who "worked so hard to make him succeed," and without whose aid "he never would have been" President.

The Admiral is "glad that he cannot remember anything about the letter, because it is so poor a return for the President's uniform kindness."

The Admiral discovers Mr. Grant to be very "kind" as President, but as General he was "wanting in magnanimity," and very "avaricious."

Poor Porter! We fear he will be bottled up, now.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

THURSDAY, Dec. 8, 1870.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by Rev Mr. Norment, of the Senate.

Messrs. Robbins, Warren, Gilmer, Jones and Love, presented reports from their respective Committees.

Mr. Troy moved to suspend the rules in order to put the House bill to restore the Western Railroad to the individual Stockholders, on its several readings; rejected and the bill placed on the calendar.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Albright: A bill to allow the Commissioners of Chatham county to levy a special tax; placed on calendar.

Mr. Jones: A resolution enquiring of the Committee on the Penal Institutions if any legislation is necessary to complete the work on or to provide for the expenses of the management of the Penitentiary, and instructing them to report a bill on to-morrow; carried.

Mr. Robbins, of Rowan, a resolution appointing Messrs. Love, Worth and Lehman, a Committee to ascertain the exact amount of money in the Treasury; adopted.

Mr. McClammy: A resolution asking the removal of the political disabilities of Hon. A. M. Waddell, Congressman elect from the 3rd District.

On motion of Mr. Troy, the name of Hon. Sion H. Rogers, Congressman elect, from the 4th District was inserted.

The resolution was then adopted by the following vote:

YEAS.—Messrs. Adams, Albright, Allen, Battle, Brogden, Cook, Council, Cowles, Crowell, Currie Dargan, Fleming, Flythe, Gilmer, Graham, Hawkins, Jones, King, Lassiter, Latham, Ledbetter, Lehman, Linney, Love, Mauney, McClammy, McCotter, Merrimon, Moore, Morehead, Murphy, Norment, Olds, Robbins of Davidson, Robbins of Rowan, Skinner, Smith, Speed, Troy, Waddell, Warren, Whitesides and Worth.—43.

NAYS.—None.

Messrs. Hyman and Price (col.) were excused from voting, the latter stating that he would vote for a similar resolution including in its provisions all the banned citizens of the State.

Mr. Robbins, of Rowan: A resolution of instruction to the Judiciary Committee; adopted.

Mr. Speed: A petition from Micajah Anderson of Edgecombe county, reciting that Senator N. B. Bellamy is not a citizen of Edgecombe county, and therefore praying that his seat be declared vacant.

Mr. Bellamy stated that if he was not a citizen of Edgcombe he was not a citizen of the State. During the Summer months his family had usually visited her father and remained with him several months.

On motion of Mr. Norment, the petition was laid on the table.

Mr. Latham: A bill to extend the time for the collection of taxes in Martin county. The rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

Mr. Worth: A resolution in favor of the Sheriff of Moore county; passed its several readings as above.

Mr. Fleming: A bill authorizing the County Commissioners in each county in the State to extend the time for the collection of taxes when deemed necessary; calendar.

A bill to pay M. A. Bledsoe certain claims held by him, against the Lunatic Asylum, was taken up and placed on its second reading.

Mr. Olds urged its passage. The claim was just and equitable.

Messrs. Speed, Robbins and Murphy contended that the allowance to Mr. Bledsoe by the last Legislature was made as a finality.

Mr. Graham said that there was no such understanding on the part of Mr. Bledsoe—that Mr. Bledsoe failed to get full amount of his claim from the last Legislature, because he would not pay Littlefield to get it through. It is a notorious fact that no bill could pass that body without the lobby influence, controlled for a consideration, by Milton S. Littlefield. The claim was a just one; it had been so adjudicated by the Supreme Court, and the curtailing of the claim by the last Legislature should certainly be no reason for its rejection by honest men in this body.

Mr. Murphy said that it was thought by the committee having this matter in charge in the last Legislature that the allowance then made was a compromise with Mr. Bledsoe, which he thought was tacitly accepted by that gentleman. The money had been kept from Mr. Bledsoe for a long time, and he desired to see him paid, but that while entertaining these views he thought the compromise offered by the last Legislature the proper basis of settlement.

Mr. Love concurred in the opinion of Mr. Murphy as to the proper amount, but thought this body should judge this question for itself independently of any action of any other legislature.

Mr. Moore advocated the passage of the bill at length.

Mr. Olds earnestly pressed the passage of the bill, arguing that the recommendation of the Supreme Court, that the whole amount should be paid, should have great weight, and that the judgment of the Senate should be in accordance therewith.

Mr. Dargan favored the bill. The claim being a just one, he would vote for it if no other Senator did, without regard to the action of any previous legislature. Common honesty demanded the passage of the bill.

Mr. Robbins, of Davidson, opposed the bill, and thought Mr. Bledsoe, by accepting the allowances of the last Legislature, had waived his right to any further claim.

Messrs. Graham and Olds stated that Mr. Bledsoe had not accepted or received any amount from the Treasury.

Mr. Robbins, of Rowan, moved to refer the bill to the Committee on claims.

Mr. Whitesides favored the reference.

Mr. Norment expressed himself as ready to vote for the bill without reference.

Mr. Merrimon presented a substitute, which, with bill and accompanying papers, was referred to the Committee on Claims.

Before the reference Mr. Speed said that he should oppose the bill now and hereafter. North Carolina owed other just debts to her citizens. She was not able to pay any of them in full. He would not vote to pay any of these claims in full, for the reason that the State is entirely insolvent.

A bill to provide for the election of a Keeper of the Capitol by the Legislature, on the fourth Monday of each session, passed its several readings.

SPECIAL ORDER.

A bill to consolidate the North Carolina Railroad with the North Western N. C. Railroad.

Mr. Smith said, this matter had been under consideration in the Boards of both these Companies, but they had found that no conclusion could be reached without legislation. This bill did not force a consolidation but merely permitted it. By an exchange of stock as provided in the bill, the proposed arrangement would cost the North Carolina Railroad nothing. He presumed there would be no opposition to the bill as the consolidation would be a very great advantage to the N. C. Railroad.

Mr. Gilmer appealed to those Senators who yesterday advocated the granting of charters to all who wished to build Railroads, to come forward and assist in developing the resources of the beautiful country, through which the North Western Road was to pass.

Mr. Troy offered an amendment excluding the State stock from a vote on the question of consolidation; rejected.

Mr. Troy also an amendment that this Road shall not discriminate in freight tariffs against the Western Railroad; adopted.

Mr. Robbins of Rowan, said that although he had made a favorable report on the bill by order of the Committee, he should nevertheless vote against it.

The bill they passed its second reading, yeas 37, nays 7.

Mr. Troy presented a resolution that the General Assembly take a recess from the 22d of Dec. to the 11th of Jan.; lies over.

Mr. Murphy, a resolution that the Senate meet hereafter at 10 o'clock and adjourn at 2 o'clock. Pending this resolution the Senate adjourned until to-morrow 10 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, Dec. 8.

House called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Grayson of the House.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Mr. Robinson, from the Committee on Enrollment, reported several bills and resolutions as being correctly enrolled.

Mr. Settle presented a memorial from Jesse C. Griffith, Sheriff of Caswell, in reference to the taxes of his county. The memorial was read and appropriately referred.

Mr. Powell, from the Committee on Engrossed Bills, reported several bills as correctly engrossed.

Mr. Settle, from the Committee on Claims, reported favorably several bills, which were placed on the calendar.

Mr. Ashe, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a substitute for the bill declaratory of the meaning of the act entitled "An act to repeal certain acts passed at the session of 1868-'69, making appropriations to railroad companies, ratified March 8, 1870." The substitute and the original were placed on the calendar.

Mr. Rankin, from the Committee on Salaries and Fees, submitted a report in regard to the various bills and resolutions in reference to per diem and milage; the report was placed on the calendar.

Mr. Martin, from the Committee on Counties, Cities and Townships, reported on several bills, which were placed on the calendar.

By Mr. Kelly of Moore: A resolution in favor of the Sheriff of Moore: referred.

By Tucker, col.: A resolution in regard to stationery; placed on calendar.

By Mr. Brooks: A bill to legalize the acts of the Justices of the Peace of Brunswick: referred.

By the same: A bill to fix the compensation of the County Treasurer of Brunswick; referred.

By Mr. Nicholson: A bill in relation to the Board of Commissioners of Iredell; referred.

By Mr. Ashe: A bill to abolish the Special Court of Wilmington; referred.

By the same: A bill to repeal section 4, chapter 14, private laws of 1869-'70; referred.

By Mr. Jones, of Northampton: A bill in favor of Samuel Warren, of Northampton; referred.

By Mr. Lassiter: A bill to prevent felling trees in Carraway Creek, Randolph county; referred.

By Mr. Collis: A bill concerning county Commissioners of the several counties of the State; referred.

On motion of Mr. Smith, of Wayne, the rules were suspended and the bill to amend the charter of the town of Goldsboro' was taken up.

Dudley, col., moved to strike out "90" and make "30 days" the time of residence requisite to entitle to a vote.

Cawthorne, col., moved to lay the bill on the table. The yeas and nays were called and the motion was rejected by a vote of yeas 32, nays 71.

Mr. Smith, of Wayne, called the previous question. The call was sustained and the amendment of "30 days" was voted down. The bill then passed its third reading by a vote of yeas 67, nays 37.

On motion of Mr. Rankin, the rules were suspended and the report of the Committee on Salaries and Fees, in reference to the various resolutions and bills in regard to mileage and per diem, was taken up and adopted.

On motion of Mr. Waring, the rules were suspended and the bill in regard to elections, was taken up. [The bill provides that all legal electors shall be required to vote in the township in which they live.]

On motion of Mr. Sparrow, the bill was referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

CALENDAR.

Bill in favor of Geo. Nix, late Sheriff of Yadkin, and Wm. Haymore, late Sheriff of Surry county, was taken up on its third reading.

Bill to repeal the act in relation to taking fish in the Northeast branch of the Cape Fear River was taken up and passed its third reading.

On motion of Mr. Welch, the rules were suspended and the bill concerning a Convention of the people was taken up, ordered to be printed and referred to the Committee on Constitutional Reform.

On motion of Mr. Justice, the rules were suspended and the bill proposing constitutional amendments by legislative enactments was taken up, ordered to be printed and referred to the Committee on Constitutional Reform.

CALENDAR CONTINUED.

Bill to prescribe the time for Sheriffs to settle for State and county taxes was taken up and passed its third reading.

Bill to repeal section 7, chapter 167, public laws of 1868-'9 was taken up and passed its third reading.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Bill concerning the city of Wilmington.

Mr. Ashe offered an amendment electing the Mayor by a popular vote instead of by the Board of Aldermen as the bill originally provided, also one continuing the present officers until a fair registration can be taken and an election held at some subsequent day. These amendments together with some others were adopted without debate.

Mabson, col., offered an amendment which was voted down.

Mr. French argued for some time in opposition, and concluded by moving the indefinite postponement of the bill.

Mr. Ashe next occupied the floor in support of the bill. In reply to Mr. French's charge, that this bill gerrymandered the wards of the city, he would refer to the most iniquitous gerrymandering that the party recently in power had used in laying off the Senatorial and other districts of the State, which met the gentleman's (Mr. French's) hearty approval. In reference to the gentleman's consistency in his opposition to the provisions of this bill, he would simply refer to his recorded vote in favor of the passage of this bill in regard to the town of Salisbury which passed the last Legislature. That bill required a six month's residence, this only 90 days.—That bill required a property qualification, this none whatever. The principles of this were so obviously fair and just, that he (Mr. Ashe) would not consume the time of the House in discussing them.

Mr. A. continued for sometime in advocacy of the bill, reviewing the outrages perpetrated upon bona fide citizens of corporated towns and cities in the way of amendments made to their charters by the last Legislature, &c. He concluded by calling the previous question in order to save time and the people's money.

The call for the previous question was sustained, and the motion by Mr. French, to indefinitely postpone was rejected by a vote of yeas 38, nays 37.

The bill then passed its third reading by a vote of yeas 69, yeas 37.

By Mr. Settle: A bill authorizing J. C. Griffith to collect arrears of taxes; referred.

Resolution to investigate the conduct of certain public officers in consequence of the maladministration of the State government, was taken up. (Introduced by Fletcher, col.)

Mr. Sparrow said that this resolution being introduced by a colored Republican, he would vote for it with pleasure.

The resolution was put to a vote and adopted.

Resolution asking our Congressmen to use their influence to secure the passage of a general amnesty act, and the repeal of the test oath, was taken up.

Mr. French could not advocate the passage of a general amnesty act. He thought those wishing a removal of their disabilities should make individual application. He would endorse the individual application of Zeb. Vance, Joe Turner or the Devil.

Mr. Grayson (the introducer) spoke in support of the resolution. He didn't see how the United States government could proclaim that Southern States were reconstructed and participating in the benefits of the Union when hundreds and thousands of as good citizens as the United States contained were denied the rights of citizenship merely because they happened to hold some little office. President Grant had adopted the motto "Let us have Peace," and he (Mr. Grayson) heartily endorsed the motto, and he wished to have these political disabilities which engender so much hate and strife to be entirely swept away.

Mabson, col., moved to lay the resolution on the table; lost.

Mr. Justice was in favor of the resolution.

Mr. McAfee said no colored man in the State was under disabilities and no white man should be.

Mr. Jones of Caldwell said, in reference to Mr. French's allusion to the Devil in connection with Gov. Vance and other gentlemen, that the Devil had certainly been under no disabilities in this State for the last two years. He (the Devil) was in nearly every office and his cloven foot could be seen in almost every act done by the party so lately in power.

Dudley, col., opposed the resolution.

Mabson, col., again spoke in opposition to the resolution and believed it was the universal sentiment of the Republican party, in this State, that Congress should pass no general amnesty act.

Williamson, col., argued in support of the resolution. He thought any one exercising the right of the ballot should have the right to hold office. All colored men in this State were now freemen and citizens, and he was opposed to depriving any other class of the same privileges and rights. He would vote for this resolution, not to gain popularity with any class, but would do so for the sake of principle.

Messrs. Ellison, col., and Fletcher were in favor of the measure as a matter of both policy and justice.

Johnson, col., of Edgecombe, would vote against the resolution.

Mr. Harris, of Franklin, saw nothing objectionable in the resolution, and did not see why any Republican should vote against it.

Mr. Goodwyn argued against the resolution. He was utterly opposed to a general removal of disabilities.

Mabson, col., in reply to Mr. Harris, of Franklin, said he would give a reason why Republicans should vote against this resolution. It was this: the Republicans of the State were opposed to a passage of a general amnesty, and especially to the removal of Gov. Vance's disabilities. Voting for this resolution would be to vote to ask the Senate of the United States to remove the disabilities of Gov. Vance.

The resolution was then adopted by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Anderson, Armstrong, Ashe, Atwater, Atkinson, Brooks, Broadfoot, Brown, Bryson, Bunn, col., Buxton, Cawthorne, col., Carson, Chamberlain, Clinard, Collis, Copeland, Crawford, Currie, Darden, Dickey, Duckworth, Ellison, col., Fletcher, col., Furr, Gambrel, Garrison, Gatling, Gore, Gullick, Grayson, Gregory, Hampton, Harris, of Franklin, Harris, of Guilford, Hargrove, Hardy, Henderson, Houston, Hill, Hinnant, Johnston, of Buncombe, Johns, Jones, of Caldwell, Joyner, of Johnston, Joyner, of Pitt, Jordan, Justice, Kelly, of Davie, Kelly, of Moore, Kelsey, Kincade, Lassiter, Lucas, Luckey, Lyon, Martin, Marler, Maxwell, McAfee, Morris, Morgan, of Montgomery, Mills, Mitchell, Newsome, Nicholson, Nisson, Powell, Rankin, Reid, Regan, Robinson, Scott, Settle, Shull, Smith, of Anson, Smith, of Wayne, Sparrow, Stanford, Stewart, Strudwick, Tomlinson, Waring, Welch, Wilcox, Womack, Woodhouse, Williamson, col., Young, of Yancey, and York.

NAYS.—Bryant, of Halifax, col., Dudley, col., Faulkner, col., French, Goodwyn, Johnson, of Edgecombe, col., Mabson, col., Morgan, of Wake, Reavis, col., Robbins, col., Smith, of Halifax, col., Tucker, col., Willis, col.

OFFICIAL BIZZNESS.

OFFISS OV "JOSH BILLINGS' FARMERS ALLMANAX FOR 1871."

Baldwin, My Dear:

Sum men are born grate, sum git grate after they are born, sum have grateness hove upon them, and sum ain't troubled with neither.

But (mi dear phello) the object in writing this epistol iz not this, but to inform yu, that I shall let loose, on the fust day ov Oktober 1870, "JOSH BILLINGS FARMER'S ALLMANAX FOR 1871."

This Allmanax will lug cumfort, and consolashun tew the bleedin hartes ov the millyun—if I ain't mistaken. No family, who keeps a two horse carriage, should be without this Allmanax. This Allmanax is wuth more in the house ov the poor man, than a bull's eye watch, or a base drum.

To the fair sekts ov our land, this Allmanax will prove a blister plaster ov joy, and a poultiss ov satisfackshun. Az Anshunt Knower, phull ov phaith, let slip the pure and innosent duv from his ark, so doth i let slip this Allmanax, and hope it won't cum back. All good housewifes will find in this Allmanax, how to train up their husbands in the way they should go, and they won't depart from it, and also how tew make a lively slap jax.

To the weary wanderer this Allmanax will be a gide board, showing the nearest cut to the next town, and to the sorry, A soda fountain ov gimnastik delight.—This Allmanax gives the biography, etimology, syntax, and prosidy ov the bugs, beasts, and little cod fishes, and tells us, with the fondness ov a step parent, the right time to trade oph a dog.

In konklushun, it gives me grate plezzure tew remark,—that kussid are lobsters and milk for supper, for they hav no bowells ov mercy, nor mercy for bowels.—Kussid are the know nothings, for they shall see Sem.

With grate flexibility ov karakter, I am your limber friend.

JOSH BILLINGS,
Allminacker.

P. S. For further particulars call on O. S. Baldwin, Clothier, N. E. corner Canal and Broadway, New York.

FAITH WELL FOUNDED.

In old times, at the commencement of every season, it was the fashion to take a strong cathartic as a safeguard against a change of temperature. It was a worse than senseless practice. The people of our day understand the matter better. Instead of depleting the system they reinforce it. In the method they adopt they exhibit a wise discrimination. Instead of resorting to the vitiated stimulants of commerce, or any of the compounds derived from them, they put their faith in the only absolutely pure invigorant procurable in the market—Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Their faith is well founded. Never has any tonic medicine been prepared with such scrupulous precision and conscientious care. It is a vegetable compound of which every ingredient is sound, wholesome and medicinal in the true sense of the word. Now, we have three prominent national complaints. One half of the adult population of the United States suffer more or less, either from disease of the stomach, derangements of the liver, or affections of the kidneys. In no other land under heaven are these maladies so general as in this country, and Hostetter's Bitters is a specific for them all, unless organic in their origin, and, therefore, beyond cure. And let those who are fortunate enough to be exempt from them at present understand one great fact, viz: that an occasional use of this vitalizing tonic will as certainly prevent them as the sun will prevent the earth from freezing where its genial beams descend.

PROF. CHANDLER of New York City, in a lecture delivered by him at Cooper Institute, March 19, 1870, said:

"It is hardly necessary to enlarge upon the terrible accidents which have resulted from the use of unsafe kerosene; you have only to read the newspapers from day to day to see them. It is stated by some that these are exaggerated; that these accidents never occur, and that you and I never had a friend burned to death; still we do have an enormous number of terrible accidents from petroleum. In the last seven months of 1869 there were fifty five kerosene accidents in New York, resulting in twenty-three deaths, eighteen serious injuries and fourteen slight ones. The total result for the year 1869, for the City of New York which I myself have cut from newspapers is fifty-two fatal accidents from dangerous kerosene, fifty severe and six slight, in all 108 persons to my knowledge, from my own reading have been injured by kerosene in one year."

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1870.

☞ Theo. N. Ramsay, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

Fair! Fair!!—The Catholic Fair opens in this City on next Monday evening. It will be held in St. John's School, and the indications are that it will be no second-class Festival. A large supply of superb articles are to be presented to visitors. Come, everybody. It will be a charming time.

Presents for the tables are respectfully solicited, and may be sent to the care of the Sisters of Mercy.

Lost.—A lady's gold breast-pin, shaped like a shell, was lost Wednesday night between the residences of Rev. J. M. Atkinson and Hon. B. F. Moore. The finder will please leave it at the Sentinel office.

Judge Kerr's Cane.—We are in receipt of a letter from one of Kirk's late "lambs," one J. H. Bailey, which says: "The sword-cane was taken from Judge Kerr at the time of his arrest by Kirk, by order of W. W. Holden and Kirk, and was carried to Raleigh, to W. W. Holden, by H. C. Yates or G. B. Bergen."

It will yet be developed that the Governor was more intimately connected with the many outrages committed by Kirk and Bergen, which he would have it appear were contrary to his wishes and orders, than will be pleasant or confortable to him.

A Pleasant Affair.—Our city has been considerably enlivened this week by a visit of the Senior Class of Trinity College, accompanied by the accomplished, energetic and scholarly President, Rev. B. Craven, D. D.

On Wednesday evening, by invitation, they met a number of young friends of both sexes at the popular boarding house of Mrs. Lucy B. Evans. We had the good fortune to be one of the guests, and seldom have we spent a more pleasant evening. Lively and agreeably conversation filled the hours, followed by a recherche supper. The pleasant party dispersed at a reasonable hour, all well pleased with the convivility of the occasion.

On Thursday afternoon, a number of prominent gentlemen, by special invitation, became the guests of Dr. Craven and the young gentlemen of the Senior class, and partook of dinner with them at the Yarborough House. The members of the class present on this occasion, were O. H. Allen, Duplin county; D. E. Bryant, Texas; A. J. Ellington, W. F. L. Steele, Rockingham; J. R. Tucker, S. C.; J. R. Pearce, Texas; J. L. Cramer, Trinity; J. W. Mauney, Stanley; F. M. Simmons, Jones; W. W. Brickell, Halifax; R. S. Bynum, Stokes; H. W. Norris, Wake; O. S. Paul, Mississippi; Alex. Greene, Wilson. Among the guests were, Hon. T. J. Jarvis, Speaker of the House of Representatives; Rev. Wm. Closs, D. D., with a number of members of the Senate and House, members of the editoritorial fraternity, and private citizens. The dinner was such as Dr. Blackwell was expected to get up, superior in every appointment. All the delicacies, as well as the more substantials, of the season were on the board, served a la mode. The following Toasts were drank: By Senator W. M. Robbins—The Sentinel. Respondad to by Mr. Josiah Turner. By Maj. Seaton Gales,—Learning and Legislation. Responded to by Mr. Speaker Jarvis, and President Craven.

Time having arrived for departure of the students for Trinity, the parties returned, after a round of the happiest pleasure, all feeling that it was good to be there. Long may Trinity and the students flourish, and may Raleigh often be the scene of their pleasants visits, and that clever gentleman, Dr. Blacknall, their host.

We direct attention to the advertisement of the North Carolina Beneficial Association. Prominent and reliable gentlemen who witnessed the last drawing of this concern speak of it as having been fairly and satisfactorily done. Now is the time for some lucky person to get rich soon, on a small investment.

Centennial Anniversary.—The A. F. and A. Masons of North Carolina will celebrate, on the 14th day of January 1871, in this city, the one hundredth anniversary of the organization of their Grand Lodge in North Carolina. At its meeting last week, the Grand Lodge appointed J. B. Batchelor, R. W. York, James Southerland, H. H. Munson, and B. J. Houze, Esqs., a Committee of Arrangements to make necessary preparations for the occasion. Rev. N. F. Reid, D. D. of the N. C. Conference, M. E. Church, has consented to deliver the oration. A grand Masonic jubilee may be expected.

"Spalding's Glue," handy about the house, mends everything.

Another Mystery Solved.—Chemists being unable to discover the ingredients in fragrant Sozodont, which removes all stains from the teeth and imparts such a peculiar rosiness to the gums, the public are hereby informed that it is a preparation from the Bark of the Quillaya Saponaria or Soap Tree of Chili, imported for the first time into this country for this special purpose. Such is the purifying and innocuous effect of this rare botanical agent, that it removes discolorations from the most fragile textile fabrics, without injuring a single thread.

Dec. 7-eod1w.

Sudden Changes of Weather are productive of Throat diseases, Coughs, Colds, &c. There is no more efficient remedy for these diseases to be found, than in the timely use of "Brown's Bronchial Troches." They possess real merit, and have proved their efficacy by a test of many years, having received testimonials from eminent men who have used them.

We publish the following communication by request, for the information of those interested in the subject of which it treats:

Newton, N. C., Dec. 6, 1870.

Editor Sentinel: In my remarks before the railroad meeting which convened at this place on yesterday, I stated that it would cost less, by $14,000, to build a railroad from Hickory Station to Charlotte direct, than the proposed road from Hickory to Lincolnton via Newton.

The distance from Hickory via Newton to Charlotte is reckoned at 50 miles; and from Hickory via Newton to Lincolnton is reckoned at 28 miles. Such an assertion in the face of these facts was regarded as remarkable, and probably by some as the result of undue enthusiasm—at least several gentlemen interested in the enterprise have called on me for a more detailed explanation of my views in this respect. Hence I have concluded to give publicity to those views through the Sentinel, (it having the most extensive circulation in the country.) It will be proper here to state that three propositions for a railroad are now being agitated in Catawba and the adjoining counties. The first route proposed is from Tuckaseage station on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad to Lenoir in Caldwell county; the second route proposed is direct from Charlotte to Lenoir; the third is a branch road from Lincolnton to Hickory via Newton, connecting with the Western Extension at Hickory. Each of these routes has its friends and advocates, and the merits of each are being agitated with a view of obtaining a liberal appropriation from the county.

From the very recent agitation of this enterprize, we are unable to determine its popularity, and consequently our views as to the result of an election, are speculative and unreliable. We can only indulge the hope that the people will properly and duly reflect upon the benfits and advantages that they will necessarily derive from the consummation of the project—both in an individual and collective capacity. We will add here, the proposition in regard to the "appropriation."

It is proposed that the County Commissioners submit the proposition to the people to raise one hundred thousand dollars by taxation, and at the same time submit the "three proposed routes," that whilst voting "for" or "against" the "appropriation," they may vote "for" or "against" one of the three routes as proposed. Thus if the "appropriation" is carried, the route receiving the higest number of votes will be entitled to the appropriation.

I have deemed it proper to make this statement, that all interested parties might take such steps as the importance of the matter suggests to them. We now come to the question of cost. If it will cost ($14,000) fourteen thousand dollars less to build a 50 mile road than to build a 28 mile road, how can it be accomplished? The answer is, by building a "narrow guage road" which would not answer the purposes to be subserved by the Road from Lincolnton to Hickory; the object of this latter road being to connect with the Western Extension, and must necessarily have the same guage. Is the "narrow guage road practicable?" If so, what would be the actual cost of constructing and equipping such a road? My knowledge on this point is derived from what I regard as good authority, the editor of the Wilmington Journal. He has taken a plain, practical business view of this question, hence, I shall employ his own language as used in the Weekly Journal of October 4th:

* * * "We are persuaded that the merits of the narrow guage road alone are sufficient to decide the question. The subject of narrow guage railroad through the great success of those in operation in Wales, is exciting a very marked influence throughout Europe. In India also, this system of railroads, has already been brought into extensive use, where its economy of construction and operation makes it very valuable. Some attention to it is now being paid in the United States and narrow guage railroads are about to be built in Texas.

The British Association which met at Exeter recently, discussed very fully the question of narrow guage railroads, and strong evidence was brought forward to prove the immense economy of narrow guage over wider guage roads. The cost of such roads is within the means of even small communities—the grading can be cheaply done; the expenses of engines and rolling-stock is comparatively light, the saving of fuel is remarkable. At the meeting to which we have referred it was urged that "every inch added to the width of a guage, beyond what is absolutely necessary for the traffic adds to the cost of construction, increases the proportion of dead weights; increases the cost of working, and in consequence, increases the cost of transportation." So much so is this the case, that even if the cost of constructing a narrow guage were equal to that of a wide guage—the actual saving in dead weight and the expense of working the smaller guage would be so enormous that the narrow guage would be far the cheapest in the end and would yield much larger profits to the stockholders.

Such is the deliberate opinion now held by the most eminent civil Engineers in England." * * * *

In the Weekly Journal of the 8th Oct., we have a more detailed statement of the cost of construction and equipment of the narrow guage Roads as compared with the wide guage. The estimate was made for a contemplated Railroad from Wilmington to New River—the distance being 38 miles—and will apply to our Road. The estimate is a fraction under ($10,000) ten thousand dollars "per mile" for the wide guage and a fraction over ($5,000) five thousand dollars per mile for the narrow guage. The Editor states that his estimate for the Road spoken of, has been endorsed by the best authority, and as a matter of course ought to be reliable.

From Hickory to Charlotte, 50 miles—

	WIDE	NARROW
Cost of Construction,	$350,000	$300,000
" " Equipment,	110,000	36,800
" " Sts'ns & Incidental,	35,000	30,000
Total,	$495,000	$366,800

Hickory via Newton to Lincolnton, 28 miles—

	WIDE
Cost of Construction,	$196,000
" " Equipment,	61,600
" " Stations, &c.,	25,000
	282,600	$366,800
	266,800
	$15,400

We make no calculation of the narrow guage to Lincolnton, as it would not answer the purposes of that route.

The editor of the Journal also gives a very interesting account of a narrow guage railroad, which has been in actual operation for several years, running from Port Madoc to Festiniog, Wales, a distance of 14 miles, making the trip in one hour. This road runs over a mountainous and rugged road, the actual guage of which is only 1 foot and 11 inches, and is used for transporting the heaviest traffic, such as heavy slabs of slate, &c. These narrow guage roads are being built in Texas and California, if not already in actual operation. They are in actual operation in India, and are there used for transporting grain, cotton, &c. They are also provided with comfortable accommodations for local travel, the cars used being sufficient for 20 or 30 persons. The question of safety is settled not only on the highest scientific principles, but by the most thorough and satisfactory test—experience. If the narrow guage railroad (which does not cost more than an ordinary plank road) is practicable (and it certainly is practicable if in actual operation) in Wales, India, Texas and California, why is it not practicable in North Carolina, or any part of North Carolina? And if this be true, why expend $495,000 when $266,800 invested in the same way will secure to us the same advantages, if not greater? Why talk about building a road we are unable to build, which, when built, affords us no greater advantage than the narrow guage, which we can build by using a little exertion?

I must apologize for this lengthy letter, yet I could hardly have written less, and would like to have written much more. Our people are very much interested in this matter.

Yours truly,

S. HUSSEY.

For the Sentinel.

NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH.

FIFTH DAY.

After religious exercises, reading and adopting the minutes of Saturday, the President was directed to appoint fraternal messengers to the Maryland, Virginia, and Holston Conferences of the Methodist Protestant Church, and to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

In this connection it is but proper to insert the report of the Committee, submitted after the kindly greetings expressed by the Rev. R. O. Barton.

Resolved, That we receive with the utmost cordiality of christian feeling the address of Rev. R. O. Burton, fraternal messenger from the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to this Conference.

Resolved, That the language of christian solicitation which he has so happily addressed to us is worthy of the christian body which he so well represents, and the sentiments so feelingly expressed to us, are most heartily reciprocated on our part, and in the spirit of our common Lord, which we will by His grace, always labor to cultivate.

This interchange of christian salutation and greeting, it appears, from the stand point occupied by your correspondent, must be promotive of good.

It would appear, however, from the following report, that a christian organization embracing the ministers and members of the two Methodist Churches, at least in North Carolina, is at an end:

Whereas, The question of corporate union has been submitted to our Church in open Convention, by the authorized Commissioners of the M. E. Church, South, at Montgomery, Alabama: and whereas, the terms of union between the M. E. Church, South, and the M. P. Church as set forth by us in said Montgomery Convention, were not acceded to by said Commissioners: and whereas, said M. E. Church, South, has made, since then, no other proposition of union than that then submitted by their Commissioners; and as we earnestly desire peace in our Conference, and among our members and ministers: Therefore

Resolved, That the action of separate Annual Conferences of the M. P. Church with the M. E. Church, South, so as to unite the M. P. Church, or any part of the same with the M. E. Church, is a violation of the Constitution of the M. P. Church—is revolutionary in its character and its tendency is to disintegrate and seriously injure the Church.

Resolved, That we request our sister Conferences of the M. P. Church to cease all separate action for union with the M. E. Church, South.

Resolved, That in our judgment the question of union, on the basis proposed by the Commissioners of the M. E. Church, South, can never more be seriously entertained by the authorities of the Methodist Protestant Church."

By the adoption of the foregoing report, the Conference have expressed an opinion on the question involved, and urge their brethren of Virginia and Alabama, where some disaffection, it seems, prevails, not to rend the Church, but if members should prefer another organization, quietly retire and go where they may glorify God more in their souls and bodies which are His.

Monday, Dec. 5th, 1870. S.

SERVICES OF SUNDAY.

By the arrangement of the Committee on pulpit services, the congregation at Enfield was served by Rev. C. F. Harris, from Greensboro' Circuit, at 11 o'clock. His discourse was founded on 1st Cor., 15th chap., 34th verse: "Some have not the knowledge of God; I speak this to your shame."

I. The knowledge of God. 1. How shall we know God? By His works; by Revelation, as in His word; by the direct operations of the Holy Spirit on our hearts. 2. Some have not this knowledge; the Jews, who deny both Angels and Spirits; the infidel; the nomi al christian.

II. To know God renders us happy; without this knowledge we are unhappy in this life, and will be miserable in the life to come; "for the Lord shall come in flaming fire, taking vengeance on them who know not God."

At night the Rev. T. H. Pegram, from Winston Circuit, filled the pulpit at Enfield, and preached from the first verse of the 23rd Psalm: "The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want." Of which sermon your correspondent cannot give a synopsis, having spent the Sabbath at the Temple Church, where the Conference is holding its session, and not having been furnished with a report.

The beautiful opening of the blessed Sabbath day gave indication of remarkably pleasant weather, which was realized. At an early hour the congregation commenced assembling, and before the time for public services to commence arrived, the capacious Temple was crowded, and many were unable to get a seat, and yet they came.

Rev. A. Gray, of Haw River Circuit, who, it is said, has been forty years in the ministry, occupied the pulpit the morning hour.

His theme was the rest which remains to the people of God. The people of God are His by redemption, which involved the death of Christ's human body, sanctified by His divine nature. The people of God are His by regeneration, which involves the work of the Holy Spirit. The people of God are His by the power of sustaining grace, and implies obedience on the part of His people. To such there remaineth a rest; not the Sabbatical; but the rest of Heaven, and its glories forever.

Subsequently the Lord's Supper was administered to a large number of communicants, under the ministry of Rev. Joseph Causey, Sabbath School Missionary.

At two o'clock Rev. A. C. Harris, M.D., of the North Granville Circuit, discoursed, taking as a foundation the 23 and 24 vs., of the 139th Psalm.

Rev. Jno. L. Spain, from Buncombe circuit, delighted his audience with a terse, practical effort, based on 1 John, 4 c. 17 v., at night.

To your correspondent the day has been a very profitable and pleasant one, and I think good was effected by the religious exercises, both at Enfield and the Temple.

Blow-Your-Horn, Billy.—The Chief Justice will, doubtless, be greatly astonished if not shocked, to learn that Major Smith, an insurgent, and elected by insurgents, is allowed to blow his horn in the Senate instead of blowing it on the North Carolina Railroad. The Chief Justice decided that Major Smith was an insurgent, as was every man, woman and child of his county—indeed, his county itself—at the time of the election, and of course no individual of the county, nor the county in the aggregate, could lawfully perform any civil act. Even the Sheriff could not summons a witness, nor execute a writ, nor hold the polls of the election.

We do not subscribe to this Radical, Jacobinical doctrine, but no Radical or Jacobin shall be allowed to gainsay it, because it is laid down by the Radical Chief Justice. There is to be an election in Alamance on the 24th inst., for a member of the House Representatives, because of the illegality of the election in August. If this election is held on good and constitutional grounds, as we say it is, how is it that the Major still holds his seat, obtained as it was, in the same election, under the same circumstances, as was that of the unseated member of the House of Representatives.

In other words, if White was not allowed to blow his horn in the House, how is it that Billy blows his in the Senate.

Manteo Lodge, No. 8, I. O. O. F.—On the 13th inst., (next Tuesday,) the members of this Lodge will celebrate their anniversary. They will assemble at their Lodge room, form a procession and march to Metropolitan Hall, where an address will be delivered by Most Worthy Grand Master, Seaton Gales. After the address is concluded, the members will proceed to the National Hotel, where they will partake of a supper, prepared by mine host, Rutjes.

WHAT THE CITY PRESS SAY.

Prize Drawing.—Quite a crowd assembled at the Theatre yesterday noon, to witness the Grand Drawing of the North Carolina Beneficial Association. There were 100 prizes in all, and little rolls of paper separating these were placed in a wheel on one side, while the tickets were in another wheel opposite to the former. Between the two was a table, at which sat the Judges and Mr. John London, Commissioner. The wheels were made with glass sides, so that everything within them could be seen and were securely locked, until the drawing began. This was done by means of two little boys, who were securely blindfolded, one drawing a number from one of the wheels and the other the prize to correspond with it. There is no question but that the drawing was done in a perfectly fair and just manner.—Wilmington Daily Journal, Dec. 2nd.

The Grand Drawing Yesterday.—The grand single number distribution of the N. C. Beneficial Association, which took place at the Theatre yesterday, at 1 o'clock, was the all-absorbing theme during the day. The drawing took place in public, a committee having been selected from the audience to act with the Commissioner in keeping an account of the same and to see that it was conducted fairly. Quite a respectable crowd was present to witness the drawing. The following numbers drew the principal prizes: No. 3319, $5,000; No. 6006, $2,500; No. 5778, $2,000; No. 2812, $2,000; No. 1407, $2,000; No. 4412, $1,000; No. 1880, $500. The Certificate No. 1407 was sold to a citizen of Wilmington, N. C.—Wilmington Morning Star, Dec. 2nd.

Washington, Dec. 8.—Delano has been confirmed.

Dr. H. Bendell, an Israelite, has been appointed superintendent of Indian affairs in Arizona.

A hotly contested Senate caucus to-day over the Foreign Affairs Committee; the object being to strengthen the San Domingo element by placing Conkling on the committee instead of Patterson. The plan failed and the committee remains unchanged.

The select committee on the Mississippi Levees consists of Kellogg, Trumbull, Schurz, Spencer and Bayard; Revels is on the committee of Education; Harris chairman of the committee on retrenchment.

In the House bills were introduced providing that no duty shall be imposed upon successions vested in possession or expectancy, prior to July 1866, but forbidding reclamation for such duty already paid.

A resolution was adopted making inquiry in regard to sales of captured cotton. The resolution calls for full details.

The Post Office bill was resumed, and the franking privilege abolished by a vote of 98 to 79. Pending an amendment allowing a free exchange of newspapers, the death of Mr. Ridgeway was announced, and several gentlemen spoke in eulogy.

Mr. Butler announced that he would, on Tuesday next, ask the House to consider the general amnesty bill, and the House adjourned to Monday.

In the Senate memorials were presented for public buildings in Wilmington, N. C., for a mail route from Smithville, N. C. to Little River, S. C.; for the removal of disabilities, and for compensation for property taken by the army during the war.

Bills were introduced to prevent assessments of money upon government employees for political or other purposes; to establish the Western Judicial District of North Carolina; to provide that all elections for President, Vice President and members of Congress, shall be by ballot.

The standing committees were announced.

OHIO.

Cincinnati, Dec. 8.—The Winter Garden theatre was burned to-day, and the Methodist book concern, adjoining, was damaged $15,000; fully insured.

TENNESSEE.

Memphis, Dec. 8.—The Federal Court has awarded $40,000 to Riddle and Coleman, against Gen. Pillow and Maj. Murphy, for coal seized at the beginning of the war. A motion was made for a new trial. Pillow and Murphy acted as Confederate officers in seizing the coal.

BOSTON.

Boston, Dec. 8.—Wm. Beals, one of the proprietors of the Boston Post, died, aged 85 years.

ALABAMA.

Montgomery, Dec. 8.—In the House today, Davis, Democrat was re-seated without a dissenting vote. The case of the Governorship was resumed in the Court to-day. Barr who presided over the Senate before Lt. Gov. Moren was inaugurated, and refused to count the votes for Governor, was on the stand as witness. He swore that he was consulted beforehand, and accepted service on the writ of injunction, and also that a bill was drawn in which Ex-Gov. Smith was complainant and he defendant, and that he, Barr, the defendant, swore to the allegations in the bill of complaint. The bill was afterwards withdrawn. At 4 o'clock the whole case assumed a new phase. Judge Rice, counsel for Smith, asked a postponement until to-morrow morning, on the ground that by morning it could be settled.—The counsel for Gov. Lindsay made the same statement. It is generally thought now, that Smith will cease all opposition and that Lindsay will qualify and take possession to-morrow.

FOREIGN.

London, Dec. 8.—Dispatches from a reliable source at Brussels says that Prussia will connive at the annexation of Luxemburg first, because Loraine is strategetically useless without Luxemburg, and secondly, Lord Stanley, in 1866, declared that the guarantees of neutrality of England, as to Luxemburg, would not involve the necessity of defending them; and third, Prussia believes England would not therefore oppose this annexation. The majority of the inhabitants, however, seem opposed to the annexation.

The Fishery part of Grant's message creates uneasiness. England will certainly not stand by her dominion, unless she has clear evidence on her side.

MARKETS.

New York, Dec. 8.—Cotton dull and heavy ing downward, sales 4,700 bales, at 15¾c. Southern Flour a shade firmer, common to extra 605 to 645, Whiskey 90½, red and amber wheat 146 to 148½, Corn lower, new 78, old 80, Pork dull and heavy, 22½.

Daily Sentinel.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE.

The Commissioner of Agriculture, in his annual report, expresses the gratification he feels in representing that agriculture is in a prosperous condition and productive in a high degree. The Commissioner also says it is gratifying to believe, from indubitable evidence, that the examples of rational and remunerative culture are relatively increasing, however slowly and gradually they may be making inroads upon the destructive and irrational modes so generally prevalent. These examples are most numerous in the Middle States, and may be seen with comparative frequency in the older sections of the West. They are found occasionally in New England, and are beginning to be noted in the Southern States, but there is no State in which exhaustion and irrational culture are not predominant.

The industrial colleges, under the land grant of Congress of 1862, have advanced during the past year, but the land scrip has been issued to most of the Southern States, and a portion of it sold, but the Commissioner has heard of no action towards the organization of colleges, and fears the scrip has, in some instances, been frittered away by sales at nominal prices, as has also been the case in many of the Northern and Eastern States. The Commission speaks of steam-plowing, silk culture, cinchona trees, statistical division, cattle disease, the library department, grounds, etc., making suggestions designed to be valuable in the future. The number of packages issued during eleven months of the year number 338,391, of which 133,043 were sent to members of Congress, 7,665 to agricultural societies, 71,400 to the corps of statistical correspondents, and 7,960 to meteorological observers. The distribution includes seeds of cereals, grasses, hemp, jute, ramie, opium, poppy, sugar-beet, tobacco, sorghum, forest and shade trees, and many of the species of plants, oleaginous, edible, medical and fibrous. The most abundant and convincing evidence of the great economic value of this discription can be obtained from the archives of the department or gained from the sub-report in the recent annual volume. The total amount expended by the department since November 30, 1869, is $167,175, including salaries, leaving the total balance unexpended of the appropriation for the current fiscal year of $107,370.—N. Y. Tribune.

[From the New York Daily Bulletin.]

THE SUMAC TRADE.

Among the commodities for which New York is the receiving and distributing depot, American sumac is rapidly assuming an important position, and bids fair to soon exclude entirely the imported article, besides leaving a large amount for export after fully supplying the domestic market. This material, which enters so largely into our manufactures of dyed goods and leather, was formerly all imported, but now vast quantities are gathered in Virginia and North Carolina, manufactured on the ground and sent here. The lower grades of imported sumac have been entirely supplanted by the domestic article, and as soon as the gathering, curing and grinding shall be more carefully attended to, will no doubt supercede all grades of foreign production. The slight difference which now exists between foreign and domestic sumac is probably owing to the fact that the first is cultivated and the latter at present grows wild; but the preparations are being made to cultivate the plant in Virginia on a large scale, which will very much improve its value. For tanning morocco the native production when free from dirt is fully equal to the best foreign, but for dyeing, especially for fine fabrics, the last named is preferred. Sicilian sumac is worth in this market about $1.75 per ton, and the American already commands as high as $1.10 for a choice article. Libby's storehouse in Richmond, once so notorious as a military prison, is now used as a factory for manufacturing sumac, and as much as $100,000 in a single day has been paid for the leaf unground. The consumption of sumac in this country amounts to nearly 9,000 tons annually, of which we are now producing more than one-half, with a prospect of a large increase in a few years; and as the uses to which it is put are daily increasing, the supply will probably never exceed the demand. If it should, we can ship to England, where the consumption is over 20,000 tons yearly, and constantly increasing, with only the Sicilian market to draw from as yet, which is liable to be closed at any moment by complications arising from the present war. This new field for the profitable employment of capital and labor is a large one and well worth cultivating. This city furnishes a market for nearly all the sumac in the United States.

IMPORTANT LEGAL DECISION.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 6.—The Supreme Court of the United States has decided the case of Downham & Co. vs. the city of Alexandria, in error appealed from the Fifth Judicial District of Virginia.—In this case Alexandria imposed a tax of $200 on dealers in ale and beer by the cask not manufactured in the city, but brought there for sale. The tax was resisted on the ground that it was unconstitutional in that it was a tax on commerce and discriminated in favor of local manufacturers. The court sustained the tax and the case was brought here, where it was held that a tax could not be imposed under the 25th section of the Judiciary act on manufacturers outside of the State, but simply on those outside of Alexandria. In such a case the question was decided that the court do not raise the writ of error, and it is dismissed.

Lovers of bivalves, especially those who prefer them cooked in their own liquor, may be interested in knowing what that fluid contains. That useful little instrument, the microscope, makes some very unpleasant discoveries of which with the naked eye alone we should remain happily ignorant. A scientific journal says that if, on opening any oyster, the liquor is retained in the lower or deeper shell, and viewed through the microscope, it will be found to contain multitudes of small oysters, covered with shells, and swimming nimbly about—one hundred and twenty of which extend but one inch. Besides these young oysters, the liquor contains a variety of animalculæ and myriads of three distinct species of worms.—Sometimes their light represents a bluish star about the centre of the shell, which will be beautifully luminous in a dark room.

BACK TO THE FARM.—Are pale faces, white hands, decayed teeth and bad health, more genteel than robust frames, a good appetite, sound sleep, and independent circumstances? We think not, and for the same reason we judge that farming is not beneath any pursuit whatever, in all that makes a man virtuous, useful and happy; and it is surely to be regretted that nearly all our young men should prefer a mercantile life or a profession, to the tilling of the ground at their own quiet homes. But only is it to be lamented on account of the welfare of the young men themselves, but also in the prosperity of the country, for it is a truth that cannot be contradicted, that the best interests of the country are intimately connected with the prosperous and enlightened condition of agriculture.

LIFE INSURANCE AS AN INVESTMENT.

THE

WIDOWS AND ORPHANS

BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK.

Cash Assets over $1,500,000,

ISSUES ALL FORMS OF NON FORFEITABLE, WHOLE LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES, on the Mutual Cash Plan, declaring dividends annually after the first annual premium paid. Assets exclusively Cash, with no portion of its reserve, fund in premiums notes, consequently its "reserve" is stronger than that of any company doing business in this State. No "definite surrender values guaranteed" as an inducement to new business, but reference is made to the average amount paid on each surrendered policy, as shown by the New York Insurance Reports, 1869, as evidence of having paid larger surrender values, than has been given under a minimum "Definite Cash Surrender Value." Death losses have not occurred out of several hundred policy holders in this State, which fact must establish the better ability of, the Company to pay larger dividends than companies having an excessive mortality, the result of a selection of bad risks. "Fictitious Dividends are not declared, but dividends are given from the actual surplus, in accordance with the Company's charter. The attention of the public is invited to the following comparison of cost, demonstrating the advantages over ordinary insurances, of the

TONTINE DIVIDEND PLAN:

Ordinary Life Policy. Tontine Dividend Plan. Age 38, amount $10,000. 10 years in force. Annual Premium $291.50.
Tontine Dividend paid in cash at end of 10 y'rs	$2,769.25
Prem's pd in 10 years	2,915.00
Nett cost of insurances	$145.75

Ordinary Life Policy. Mutual Plan Cash Co. Age 38, amount $10,000. 10 years in force. Annual Premium $291.50
Prem's pd in 10 y'rs	$2,915.00
Less cash dividends received annually,	1,182.81
Nett cost of insurance	$1,732.16

Ordinary Life Policy. "Stock" Company, Age 38, amount $10,000. 10 years in force. Annual Premium $216.00
Prem's pd in 10 years	$2,160.00
Dividends nothing
Nett cost of ins.	$2,160.00

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks; upon which elements of administration the security of a Life insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

The Equitable

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES

120 BROADWAY NEW YORK.

BURROUGHS & SPRINGS,

GENERAL AGENTS,

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its Cash assets are upwards of $13,000,000,000 00, and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of Promissory Notes, as in many Companies.
3. Its Cash Income per annum is over $6,500,000 00, and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes-of-hand of policy-holders, as is the case in many Companies.
5. It has paid to Widows and Orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4,000,000 00.
6. Such payments are made in Cash, and not partly in Cancelled Notes, as is the case in many Companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a Policy, for Premium Notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $3,500,000 00, and upwords, in cash divided among Policy-Holders, (this included the dividend for the present year,) as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the Stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available, as case in payment of Premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start, and not postponed until the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made More progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the World.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected, and its dealings so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any othey Company in the World.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment Policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year, ending December 1, 1869, was $51,021,041.
18. Its Policies average larger in amount than those of any other Company, showing that Capitalists select the Eqitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," whilh is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, ond not by the mode adopted by many Companies.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with the safety of the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business, as is the case with many new Companies.
21. It is the favorite Company in the United States, as is shown by its new business last year, being nearer $13,000,000 greater than any other Company.
